Emory University’s Department of French and Italian cordially invites you to the following event:

“Post-Truths and People: The Armenian Genocide and its Negation”

Antonia Arslan
Professor Emerita of Modern and Contemporary Italian Literature, University of Padova

Siobhan Nash-Marshall
Professor of Philosophy, Mary T. Clark Chair of Christian Philosophy, Manhattanville College

Tuesday, October 17th, 2017, 7:00 PM, White Hall 208

Prof.s Antonia Arslan (Università di Padova), author of international best-seller La masseria delle allodole, and Siobhan Nash-Marshall (Mary T. Clark Chair, Manhattanville College), author of the new The Sins of the Fathers: Turkish Negationism and the Armenian Genocide, will shed light on one of the first and most devastating international cases of the post-truth phenomenon: the Armenian Genocide.

Co-sponsored by the Hightower Fund, the Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies Program, the Emory College Language Center, the Department of History, the Center for Ethics, the Department of Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, the Institute for the Liberal Arts, the Department of Religion, and the Department of Philosophy
